

Panelists

Mr. Monthian Buntan

We are honored to have Mr. Monthian Buntan as one of our panelists. As a member of the National Legislative Assembly, Royal Thai Parliament, Member of the United Nations Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the President of TAB Foundation, he dedicated himself to promote a quality of life of persons with disabilities and strives to make information and communication technologies accessible to all, including people who are blind and low-vision.

Assoc. Prof. Joseph Agbenyega, Ph.D.

We are honored to have Assoc. Prof. Joseph Agbenyega as one of our panelists. He is an Associate Professor and Director of Graduate Research, Faculty of Education, Monash University, Melbourne, Australia. He specializes in inclusive learning and school-community partnerships; child development and safety; developmental disabilities and education; diversity, culturally responsive pedagogy; safe schools; policy and curriculum development; and Educational leadership and management.

Professor Phyllis Jones, Ph.D.

We are honored to have Prof. Phyllis Jones as one of our panelists. She is a professor in the department of Teaching & Learning at University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida, USA. She developed and teaches on the masters ASD and/or Severe Intellectual Disabilities program and Curriculum and Instruction doctoral program in the department. She was the first UK recipient of the joint AACTE/UCET travel grant that allowed her to travel around the USA to analyze professional learning for teachers of students with low incidence disabilities.

Moderator

Nuttaneeya (ann) Torugsa, Ph.D.

Lecturer at Ratchasuda College, Mahidol University, Thailand
Adjunct Senior Researcher, Tasmanian School of Business and Economics,
University of Tasmania, Australia